

Dr. Clever:

Patients can find the term "skin cancer" very alarming with no knowledge regarding treatments or a path to recovery. After an initial meeting with Dr. Clever and hearing his straight-forward and caring explanation of the process, much of this fear and uncertainty is immediately removed. Dr. Clever is both an outstanding dermatologist and Mohs surgeon. Your care will be his primary concern and Dr. Clever will always discuss openly with you the treatment approach and results. Further, his highly trained and experienced support staff share his dedication, performing as a team, in achieving success.

Dr. Clever is a very knowledgeable and professional individual; but, he is also the most sincere, warm and compassionate physician I have encountered.

Tom Hirsch